

CARNARVON'S TOUR.

CARNARVON'S TOUR.
The Viceroy's Trip Meeting with Great E.

DUBLIN, August 17.—Lord and Lady Carnarvon started today on a tour through Ireland. Their first stop was at Galway, where a large crowd had assembled to meet the new viceroy. The people received the visitors respectfully. The lord-lieutenant received addresses came from the laborers' society, the harbor commission, the town commission, and the board of public works. In his reply to the addresses, he said that the government desired to do its utmost for the prosperity of Ireland. His object was to see that the citizens of Galway to develop the resources of their port which were neglected. He said that he was anxious to see America than any important country in the world. He hoped to see in his lifetime the ancient prosperity of Galway revived. He regretted that the city had been so long in decline. He said was owing to foreign competition, and urged laborers to study the interests of their country. He said that the city of Galway and other industries would be developed, and in conclusion expressed his conviction that the city would be a great success. His remarks were received with cheers.

CONGRATULATING WALSH.

The Dublin City Council to Present Members.

DUBLIN, August 17.—The Dublin Municipal council today resolved to present Doctor Walsh with an address of welcome, as successor of the late Dr. O'Connell.

Dublin. Some of the Protestant members objected to this, and Timothy D. Sullivan, home rule member of parliament for Westmeath, explained that "the proposed memorial was intended to be an act of rejoicing over the overthrow of what he called a base and vile intrigue carried on at

The Vatican by Errington, to defeat the will of the Irish people, to have Walsh succeed him as pope would be a disaster to the world's rulers. Sullivan said the demonstration was not intended in any way to cast any disrespect upon the Pope.

LONDON, August 18.—The Times' view of Devitt's speech is peculiar. In an editorial published this morning it says that it differed from his own inasmuch as it did not differ with regard to the fact that it is difficult to deal with the latter's compact venture phalanxes. Any way, Devitt will have only a small field for showing his practical powers, while Davis is theoretical.

The London Vice Meeting.

LONDON, August 17.—Rev. T. DeWitt Talmege, Rev. Mr. Spurgeon and the bishop of Exeter, have sent letters to the committee of the Third, having been invited by the directors of the meeting at the Lyric theatre, to receive the auspices of the Pall Mall Gazette, expressing their sympathy with the object of the meeting. The committee announced that £5,000 had been subscribed in furtherance of the salvation army's refuge scheme, and that they were sending a letter to the General Booth, referring to the Eliza Ann strong case, said that he rescued the girl from French Caution Necessary. Paris, August 17.—M. Adolphe Tardieu, minister for the interior, in his address to the senate of the Chamber of Deputies yesterday, said that the events of 1918 carried the Frenchmen the double lesson of the necessity of being more vigilant in the future, and of the sole view of assuring the country of safety from the natural defects of their institutions, and of the necessity of reinforcing the measures anchoring the nation into foreign adventure.

The Caroline Islands. London, August 17.—The German government has formally notified the powers of Germany that it has decided to discontinue the mission by the torpedoed vessels from Germany to the Caroline Islands.

Assassination Urged by Rochefort.
PARIS, August 17.—Henri Rochefort, writing in the Intransigent on the murder of Oliver Pain, urges that if the French government cannot bring about a settlement for the murder, the friends of Pain wait for the coming of the prince of Wales to France and avenge upon him the death of Pain.

A Congo Sensation.
LONDON, August 17.—The Belgian officer in command of the Congo force, refused to recognize the decision of the Berlin conference that the western banks of Lake Tanganyika shall form part of the frontier of the Congo state, and has proclaimed himself emperor.

England Should Stay Out.
TIFLIS, August 17.—The Kavkas (newspaper) says that England should allow Russia and Afghanistan to settle their differences between England and Russia, as at present confusion, cannot lead to satisfactory results.

The Guatemala Debt.
GUATEMALA, August 17.—Owing to the extraordinary expense of late war, the government of Guatemala has been unable to pay on the foreign and domestic debt for one year.

Order to pay off all arrears in army and civil service account.

Klitting in Ireland.

DUBLIN, August 17.—Klitting has been renewed at Lough, and several arrests have been made. The police of Dungannon were refused the use of the cars by the Orangemen and were obliged to leave from Dungannon to the scene of disturbance.

Ordered to Get up and Move.

BREXID, August 17.—Mr. Rothan, author of the "History of the War" and formerly French ambassador to Italy, has been ordered to quit Alsace train. It is reported that Prince Bismarck was offended at Rothan's diplomatic souvenirs of Germany and Italy.

The Passage Through the Dardanelles.

LONDON, August 17.—An Anglo-Turkish agreement has been proposed through which the English fleet will be allowed to pass through the Dardanelles by the term of which English men of war will be allowed to pass through the Dardanelles in time of war.

The Russian Fleet.

ST. PETERSBURG, August 17.—A portion of the Russian fleet will hereafter winter in ports along the coast of the Baltic because of the length of time that the harbor at Cronstadt is icebound.

Put Upon the stage.

LONDON, August 17.—The Pall Mall Gazette's recent revelation of London vice, having been taken up by the London Standard and is entitled "Protect our Daughters."

London, August 12.—Letters from China and Japan report that there have been disastrous floods in those countries, which have spoiled the crops and caused great distress.

Called upon to Register.

London, August 17.—T. O'Connor Power has been called upon by the Irish voters of London to register for the coming election.

The New Bishop of Salisbury.

London, August 17.—Rev. John Wadsworth has been appointed bishop of Salisbury.

To sail for America.

London, August 17.—Thomas Hughes will sail for America Saturday next.
